

Josephine Marley Beckwith Future Leader Scholars

Guadalupe Calixto

Guadalupe is a proud child of Mexican parents and has learned to embrace her culture in the world. She will be graduating from Civic Memorial High School and will be attending St. Louis University majoring in biochemistry. Guadalupe has been active in Student Council serving as Secretary and Treasurer. She is the President of the Spanish Club. She is a percussionist in the Civic Memorial band and music ensemble, serving in leadership roles with both organizations. She has been active with Holy Rosary Church in Fairmont City, assisting with the Spanish mass. In addition, she assists with food drives, tutoring and visiting the elderly in conjunction with the many groups she associates with. Guadalupe hopes that “Wherever life takes me, I hope I can be an example of a leader who carries out YWCA’s mission.”

Renee Raglin

Renee Raglin is a student athlete at Alton High School. Renee is a multi-sport athlete playing volleyball, basketball and running track. She has been awarded the Alton High School Scholar Athlete Award twice from State Farm. She participates in Pathways to Womanhood/Manhood, Talent Search, and tutors teammates in math and English. Renee is in the Transformers Group, providing important community services. She will be attending Quincy University in the fall. Renee plans on studying sports medicine in the hopes of being a physical therapist and will be continuing her career in track and field.

Samantha Evanoff -Renewal

Samantha Evanoff is a second year JMBFL scholar and is majoring in Philosophy -Neuroscience-Psychology at Washington University with the intention to become a trauma surgeon at Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis. She is currently volunteering with Ability WashU. Ability WashU was created to begin a conversation that has been missing from the Washington University campus until now. People with disabilities make up a substantial percentage of the world’s population. As a group, it is their goal to inform people about disability issues, and in general to work toward the inclusion of people with disabilities everywhere through awareness campaigns, speakers, movie showings, panel discussions, and more.

Tristan Johnston- Renewal

Tristan Johnston is majoring in political science at University of South Carolina. She has around 451 total community service hours completed with the St. Baldrick's Foundation, the Hardin American Legion Auxiliary, and the American Red Cross. She is Vice President of both Y-IMPACT and Preston Prism. Y-IMPACT, Youth Impacting Minds, People and Communities Together (Y-IMPACT) is a service organization within Preston that focuses on areas such as education, community engagement, and health and wellness. Y-IMPACT collaborates with partner organizations including Families Helping Families, the Starfish Foundation, and Harvest Hope Food Bank, to make a positive impact on the University of South Carolina campus community and beyond.

Ashlyn Green – Renewal

Ashlyn Green is a 4th year JMBFL scholar. She is currently majoring in Journalism with a minor in Sociology at the University of Missouri-Columbia. Ashlyn hopes to become a news anchor and is currently working for a local news station and is a Journalism Ambassador. Ashlyn participates in Welcome Week, Mizzou Stadium Clean-Up, and leads a bible study mentoring group for girls. Ashlyn has experience as an assistant producer at KOMU 8 News at Mizzou and has spent time anchoring with the on-campus news room MUTV. She has worked for a publication called BUZ Communications focusing on writing articles that inform the residents of Columbia on food, live music, and more!

Taryn Geiger - Renewal

Taryn Geiger, a 3 year JMBFL Scholar, attends the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa. She is a Biology /Psychology Double major in the Honors college on the Pre-Medical track. In her first year on campus, she became involved in various leadership positions including being a Director for Beat Auburn Beat Hunger, Student Government Association Senator, Project Health Peer Educator Intern, Delta Gamma Sorority, University of Alabama Dance Marathon Miracle Maker, and other various societies. She was selected for the Order of Omega, a leadership honor society for members of Fraternity and Sorority organizations. Order of Omega recognizes juniors and seniors who have exemplified high standards in the areas of scholarship, leadership, involvement within their respective organization and within the local community. Members are selected from the top 3% of students at each institution.

